The best cosmetic in the world is an active mind that is always finding something new.

(Mary Meek Atkeson)

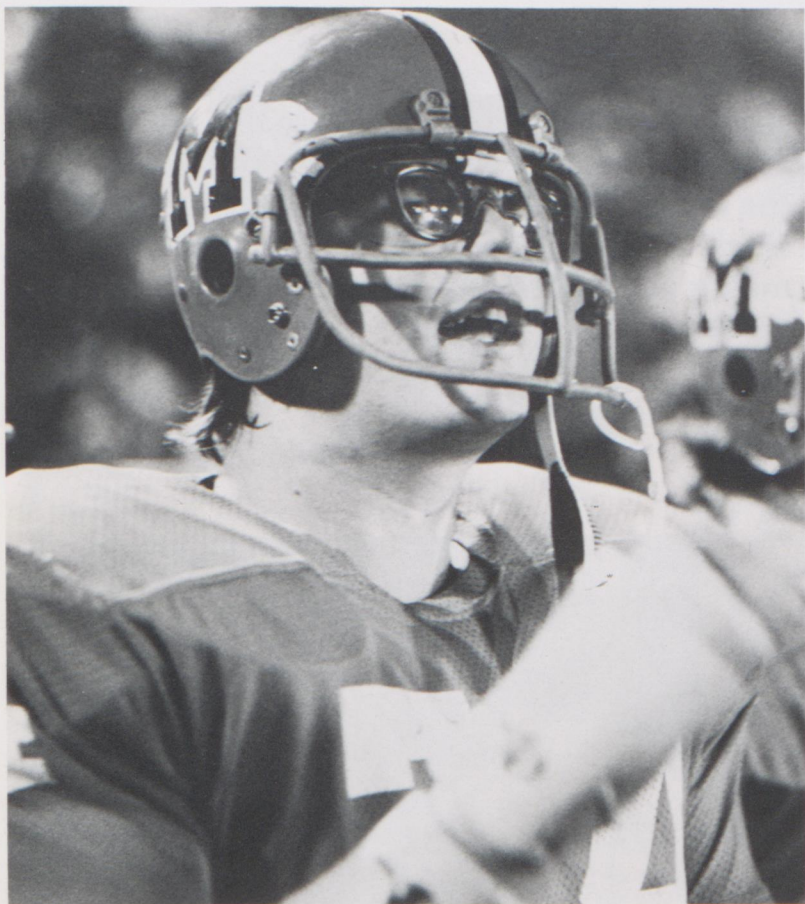

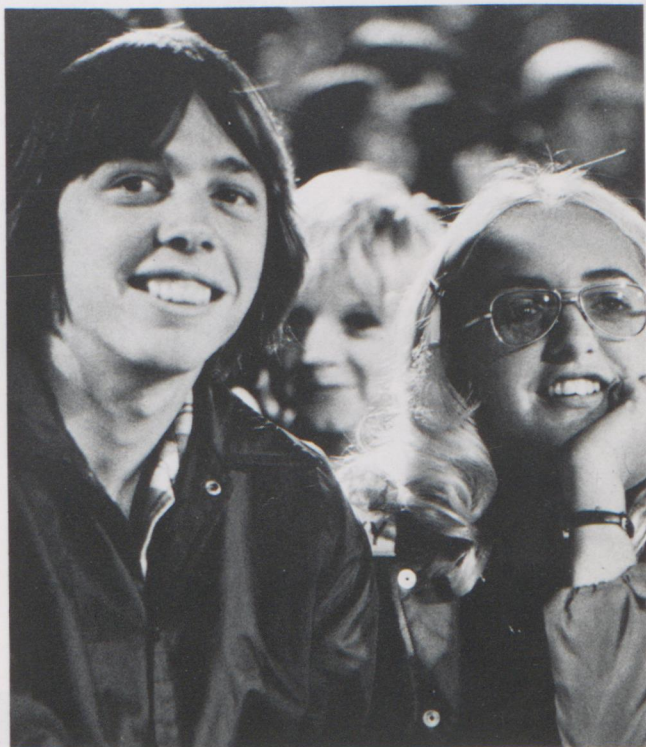

If you have anything really valuable to contribute to the world, it will come through the expression of your own personality—that single spark of divinity that sets you off and makes you different from every other living creature.

So long as enthusiasm lasts, so long

(David Starr Jordan)

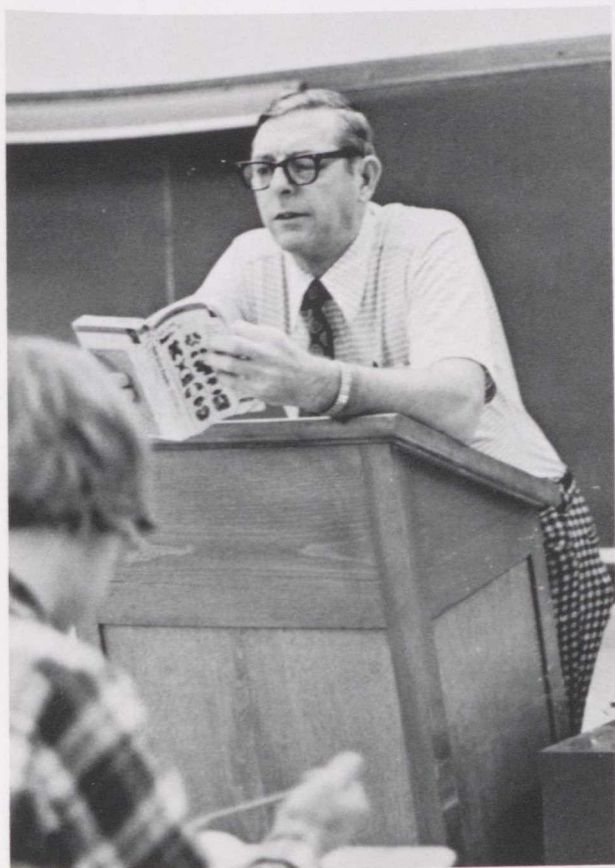

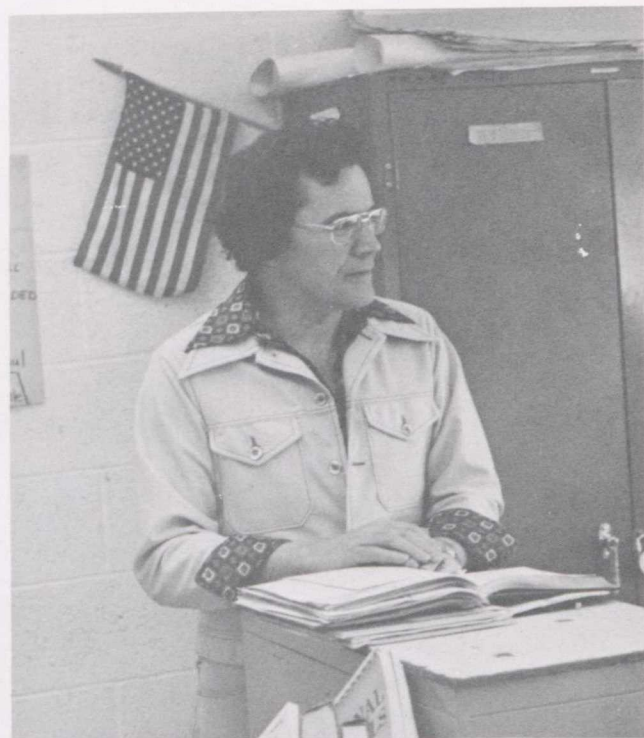

Success is to be measured not so much
by the position that one has reached in life

Class Of 1976 Works Hard For Success

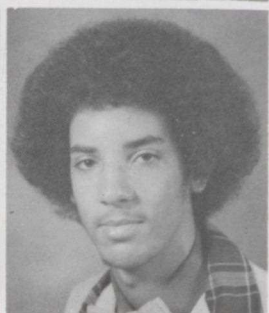

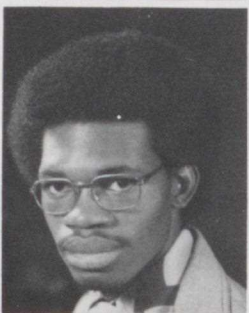

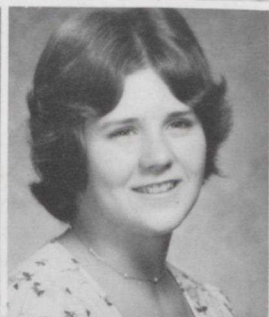

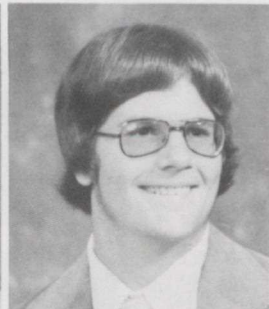

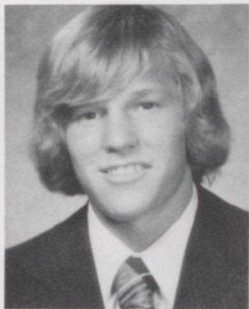

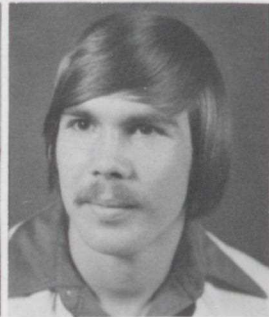

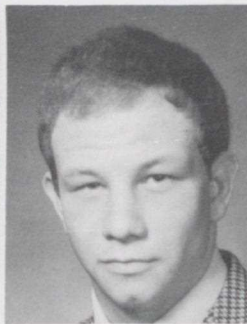

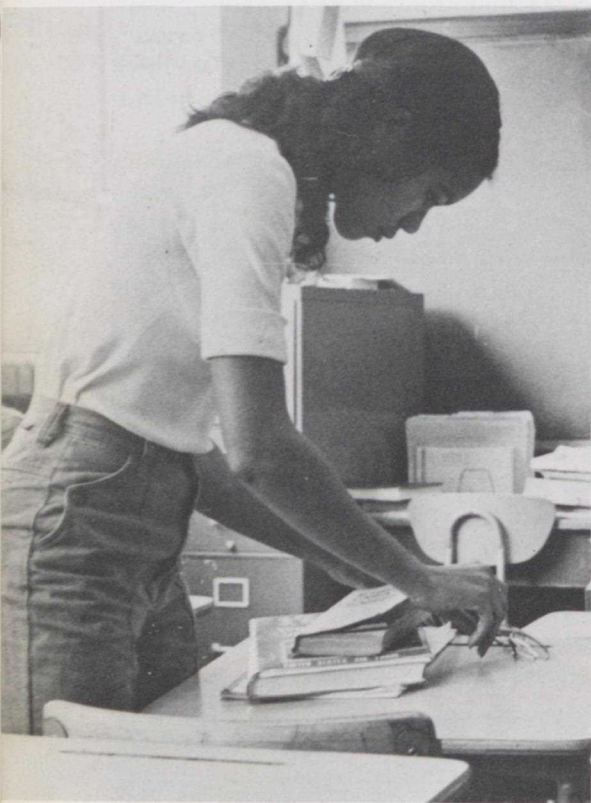

In the fall of 1973 a group of new students came to Mansfield Senior High for the first time. They formed the Class of 1976. Chosen as leaders for the sophomore year were Robert Avery, president, Isaac Robinson, vice-president; Mary McGraw, secretary; and Liz Woods, treasurer. Advisors were Miss Shafer and Mr. Campbell. Projects included a candy sale and the student-faculty volleyball game.

Homecoming was the highlight of the junior year. Cindy Weirich was crowned queen, and the theme chosen was "You Are the Sunshine of My Life". New officers elected were Julie Clay, president; Julie Jackson, vice-president; Cheryl Rodriguez, secretary; and Liz Woods returned as treasurer. Mrs. Hane replaced Miss Shafer as an advisor.

Senior year saw the production of Varsity Varieties and a most successful citrus sale at Christmas. Julie Clay was crowned queen of the J.C. Gorman Tournament. Class Day, the prom, and Commencement held the best memories of all. The class prospered under the leadership of Cheryl Rodriguez, president; Kathy Elkins, vice-president; Brenda Hamblin, secretary; and Debbie Bowers, treasurer.

Juniors Stage Successful Homecoming

One of the year's highlights for the Class of '77 was the staging of Homecoming. Juniors worked planning and decorating for the assembly, game, and dance. Other projects included a pen sale, bake sale, and a highly successful lollipop sale. Toward the end of the year juniors sponsored a paid assembly featuring a volleyball game between girls and women faculty members.

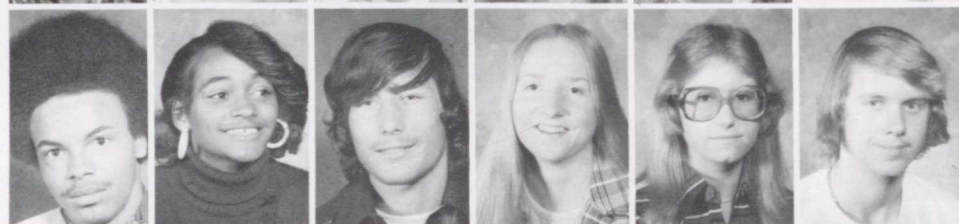

Chosen as officers this year were Edith Reynolds, president; Delores Taylor, vice-president; Louise Harkins, secretary; and Marcia Hall, treasurer. Mr. Asher and Mrs. Gerrell served as advisors to the class.

Sophomores Start Year Successfully

The sophomores started off the year by getting themselves organized as a class and electing officers. Jeff Frontz was elected president; serving with him were Robert Woods, vice-president; Denita Williams, secretary; and Curtis McFarland, treasurer. Miss Papenhausen was asked to advise the class.

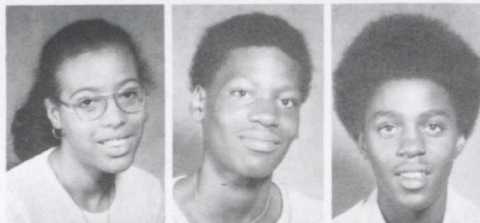

During the year sophomores sold printed buttons and organized a bake sale. Scott Winbigler and Monica Holzwarth were chosen outstanding sophomores and were honored by the Mansfield Exchange Club.

Juniper, comes to his apartment to meet his family, Tommy has to come up with a wife and child in one afternoon. Of course, everything goes wrong.

A Word Of Thanks . . .

As editor of this year's Manhigan, I would like to thank all those who worked hard and long to put this book together.

First of all, my thanks goes to all the staff members who made this 1976 Manhigan possible. Without them there would be none. I would also like to express my appreciation to our advisor, Mr. Dave Gross, and the American Yearbook representative, Mr. Earl Parks, for all their time.

My thanks also goes to our photographer, Dave Dotson, for the many fine pictures he took. His time and talent have made this Manhigan a reality. Smucker's Studio should be commended for taking pictures at many events and developing and printing many of our pictures. A big thanks goes to the Mansfield News-Journal for furnishing many great pictures.

Special thanks goes to Mr. Au and the business staff for their hard work with advertising, sales, and distribution.

Credit for the picture of the tiger on the cover goes to Marc and Evelyne Bernheim from Woodfin Camp and Associates of New York City.

In closing, I want to wish next year's Manhigan staff the best of luck and hope that they will find it as rewarding as I did.

Cindy Jones
